

Please do not allow the banking institutions which have filed the challenge to Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law to weaken the present law barring unwanted telephone solicitations. As a taxpayer and a consumer, I do not want the banking institutions to be exempted from the restrictions placed on other telemarketers. I am grateful for each and every restriction you place on these unwanted calls. Thank you for your attention to this matter. Sherri Bush